SUBJECT: 9/23 - BISB mini-retreat: Ropes course, elevator talks, free dinner with a view

To all BISB Students,

Please join the Graduate Bioinformatics Council (GBIC) to spend time as a community and celebrate our incoming set of first year PhD candidates. We will be having a one-day retreat on Wednesday, September 23rd. This event will consist of four events:

- 9am - 1pm @ Outback Adventures
  - On the morning of September 23, all 1st year students and peer mentors will be utilizing the free on-campus ropes course. This invitation is open to all students in the BISB program.
  - Please contact Rachel Marty directly if you have not already been contacted and would like to attend.
- 1pm - 2pm @ Powell-Focht Bioengineering Hall
  - Free welcome lunch for our new administrator, Begum Asena with Prof. Vineet Bafna.
- 2pm - 5pm @ Powell-Focht Bioengineering Hall
  - In the afternoon, we will be having a program-wide Bioinformatics Exchange (BEX) bootcamp project talks from the first-years, coffee break!, 2 minute elevator talks (1 slide) from 2nd+ years.
  - If you are a 2nd year or above, please contact Olga Botvinnik to send your 1 slide with the subject line "BEX slide" by 11:59pm on Monday, Sept 21st.
- 5pm - 8pm @ Martin Johnson House
  - In the evening, we will have a dinner at the beautiful Martin Johnson House (they have weddings there) at the Scripps Institute of Oceanography (SIO) with free, catered food and drink for all persons attending, just in time to see the sunset (6:44pm).
  - Note: we will be taking the SIO shuttle from campus to Martin Johnson House.

Additional GBIC Reminders:

- Got something on your mind? Contact us about posting to the GBIC blog!

Additional details on this event can be found on the BISB website, twitter profile, or facebook page.

Thank you,
Graduate Bioinformatics Council (GBIC)

This event is hosted by the Bioinformatics and Systems Biology Department (BISB).
